

Puru

Chapter 1

Ruru and I are in the park beside our elementary school. The weather is hot but seems like the clouds are gathering. And rain is about to fall. We are taking turns on the slide. Playing hide and seek with other kids. The park is surrounded with big trees with long, draping tree branches. We compete who can climb up the tree first. It starts raining, we grab our umbrellas from our backpacks. We begin to leave the park.

Chapter 2

A new dessert shop opened down the street. Ruru is very excited to go. Her family and her wait in the line for nearly 2 hours. She is becoming frustrated. When they finally enter the store, turns out the one item she wanted to try sold out. She's sad and doesn't bother to eat the other desserts her family ordered. After that they went to the Family Mart and she picks a packaged roll cake. She is happy again.

Chapter 3

Everytime I go to her house this bunny figurine catches my attention. Ruru had a full set of figures like this. I always wished I could get one for myself. The theme of her figures is very much like her. It was girly with pretty flowers and elegant colours.

Chapter 4

- = "Where does Fern go get her hair done?"
- me "I don't know, I think she's born with it."
- : "Impossible! Her curls are too nice to be natural."
- me "... OK. You go ask her."
- : "No! She looks difficult to talk to."

Chapter 5

Ruru enjoys taking photos everywhere she goes. Besides photographing the nature, she often visits cool cafés and restaurants and photograph the food. She thinks food is also important memories for her.

Chapter 6

I thought of Ruru yesterday when I was shopping for skin care. I remember one time she told me the importance of facial toners. We were grade 3, I had no understanding of skin care. She knows those stuff at such a young age probably b/c of her older sisters.

Chapter 7

The market is full of unique sellers. Ruru is overwhelmed by the insane selection of products. She loves collecting little decorations. she would buy everything if she can. "Which colour should I get?" she asks.

Chapter 8

We had just finish ordering our coffees. We walk up to the store cat and take pictures with it. This café is one of her faves. I'm not familiar with cute shops, so she really is an expert to me. We awkwardly wait for our orders. We chat + about the fun times during our elementary years. This was the last time I saw her.
