

CELINA

CHAPTER ONE

On the weekends, specifically on Saturdays I would go over to my childhood friends' house after my math and english lessons. I often hung out downstairs with Celina and her twin sisters along with my own younger sister. We would huddle around Celina's computer to play flash games and other types of games until we went home at 12 pm.

CHAPTER TWO

Celina wanted a snack, and so she combined ice cream and hot dog buns together, sandwiching strawberry flavoured ice cream in hers. I followed along and put chocolate in mine. She may have been onto something with how tasty it actually was.

CHAPTER THREE

She had a pink fuzzy blanket that she would sleep with. I noticed it was her favourite when we would have sleep overs together. It had a cute bear on it and it was made out of fleece, it reminds me of my own favourite blanket with Winnie the Pooh on it, made of the same material.

CHAPTER FOUR

As I grew older, entering my teens, I would ask Celina's younger sisters where Celina would be when I continued going over after my extra lessons. They would always tell me that she was out with her friends or that she was busy studying.

CHAPTER FIVE

Celina spent most of her time in her bedroom or was elsewhere when I visited ~~in~~ our teens. She would be playing mmo games or do homework as she was more busy with her school and friends. During this time, I realized that times have changed because we were getting older. And she was less close because of her priorities.

CHAPTER SIX

My mom told me that Kevin, the other friend that lived upstairs from Celina during that time asked how my sister and I were doing. It made me reminisce the times we spent together as a group when I went over.

CHAPTER SEVEN

I imagined them going on ~~a~~ a Japan trip. She was always into anime and games related to anime, so she would be adventurous enough to travel there.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Last time I ~~she~~ saw Celina was when she moved out from the house she lived ~~at~~ and grew up with Kevin. ~~Her~~ <sup>Her</sup> family had a roomier space and they seemed more comfortable. She came home from work, and we caught up while I was visiting.
